Privacy Notice

In order to pursue its mandate and mission, the International Association of Deposit Insurers (IADI) processes information about individuals (“Personal Data”). The IADI takes your privacy seriously. This Privacy Notice describes how the IADI collects and processes Personal Data, and how, in doing so, the IADI complies with its Personal Data Protection Policy.

What kind of personal data does the IADI collect and for which purpose?

The nature of the Personal Data the IADI collects depends on your relationship with the IADI. Typically, the IADI may process the following Personal Data: contact information (e.g. name, email, address, postcode, phone number); online information (e.g. cookies and IP address, if you visit the IADI websites); or contractual information (e.g. personal details in relation to services provided to the IADI).

The IADI collects and processes personal data only for the legitimate purposes set out herein below and only processes the Personal Data which are relevant to achieve these purposes.

What are the principles of the IADI Personal Data Protection Policy and the legitimate purposes for which the IADI processes personal data?

The IADI processes Personal Data in accordance with the following principles:

Lawfulness, Fairness and Transparency: The IADI shall process Personal Data for legitimate purposes, in a fair and transparent manner. Legitimate purposes for the processing of Personal Data are:

- Processing is required in order for the IADI to be able to carry out its mandate and mission, purpose and functions;
- Processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of a natural person;
- Processing is necessary to protect the interests of the IADI or its Members;
- Processing is required for the performance of a contract to which the IADI is a party;
- Processing is necessary for compliance with the IADI policies procedures and rules;

- Processing is required for any other activity of the IADI and the individual has given their express consent for such processing.

Purpose Limitation: Personal Data shall be collected for one or more specified and legitimate purposes, and not further processed in a manner incompatible with those purposes.

Data Minimisation: Processing of Personal Data shall be adequate, relevant and reasonably limited to what is necessary in relation to the legitimate purposes for which Personal Data is processed.

Storage Limitation: The IADI shall retain Personal Data for the duration specified in its applicable retention schedule(s) adopted by the IADI.

Accuracy: Personal Data shall be recorded as accurately as possible and, where necessary, updated to fulfil the legitimate purpose(s) for which it is processed.

Integrity and Confidentiality: Personal Data shall be recorded as accurately as possible and, where necessary, updated to fulfil the legitimate purpose(s) for which it is processed.

Accountability: The IADI has established appropriate accountability and oversight mechanisms.

How long does the IADI keep your Personal Data?

Your Personal Data will be kept for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which they were collected or to comply with legal or internal policy requirements. The IADI applies criteria to determine the appropriate periods for retaining your Personal Data depending on their purpose and in accordance with the IADI retention policies.

How does the IADI protect your Personal Data?

Your Personal Data are protected by appropriate technical and organisational safeguards against unauthorised processing and against accidental loss, destruction, damage, alteration, disclosure, access or use.

What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

Right to access Personal Data: You may ask to obtain confirmation by the IADI as to whether or not your Personal Data is being processed, and, where they are processed. Your rights will be subject to the restrictions on the right to access under the IADI Personal Data Protection Policy.

Right to rectification: You may request correction of your Personal Data that you believe is inaccurate or incomplete.

The Bank for International Settlements (“BIS” the host organisation of the IADI) oversees the IADI personal data rectification. You can exercise your rights to information or rectification by supplying a completed data subject request form in English to the Personal Data Protection Manager at privacy@bis.org or via mail to
