Expertise, Resources and Services

IGD experience covers the implementation of a deposit insurance system, including the design of a deposit insurance system and the administration of an agency. IGD personnel include both Spanish and English speaking individuals, but language preferences require coordination at least one to two months in advance due to the small number of agency staff. IGD experience does not include failed bank resolutions or the investment of deposit insurance funds.

IGD can provide professional training in the form of speakers and presentations, depending on the needs of recipients. While this does not include a formal training program, coursework could be considered on demand. IGD training experience includes participation in a financial education program managed in conjunction with the Central Bank, Financial System, Securities and Pensions Supervisors

Objectives, Priorities and Financing

IGD services are concentrated in the Americas due to traveling expenses and the similarity of financial systems, but there are no policy priorities based on counterparty or geographical location. IGD has standing agreements for information sharing and bilateral capacity building with counterparts in Argentina (SEDESA), Mexico (IPAB) and Colombia (FOGAFIN).

IGD requires mission financing from either the recipient agency or designated third party, such as the Inter-American Development Bank and other multilateral organizations.
