Expertise, Resources and Services

DICJ is capable of providing capacity building services in both deposit insurance and failed bank resolutions and specializes in the following areas: (1) deposit insurance system design; (2) management of deposit insurance funds; (3) principles and effective practices of resolution management; and (4) asset management and recovery.

DICJ offers capacity building services requiring no more than two individuals for one week, subject to availability of resources. Requests should be submitted 3 months in advance and organizations requesting capacity building services are responsible for all travel expenses, translation requirements and safety precautions. Signed written agreements are required in all cases.

DICJ can deliver professional training in classes, courses, seminars and workshops, and provide speakers and panelists for training events hosted by others. DICJ can also provide expert consultation such as advice, critiques, reviews, evaluations, reports, and meetings.

Objectives, Priorities and Financing

DICJ accepts requests for capacity building services from official counterparts around the world.

DICJ requires recipient agencies to accommodate all travel expenses, meeting space and translation services (depending on individual cases and circumstances of the mission).

Requesting Capacity Building Services

Requests for capacity building services should include specific and detailed information as follows: (1) type of assistance and the objective of the capacity building; (2) timing and duration; (3) location of the capacity building services; (4) accommodation information for instructors; (5) financing method; and (6) translation services

Requests may be sent to the following principal contact.
